15. FORM C – Information Request Form
1. Background to the Promotion of Access to Information Act

1.1. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the “Act) was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the “Constitution”) of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

1.2. In terms of section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual (“PAIA Manual”).

1.3. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body.

2. Winetech

2.1. Winetech is a Research, Development and Innovation organisation in the wine industry, operating in Paarl, Western Cape.

2.2. This PAIA Manual of WINETECH is available at its premises: Vinpro Building, Cecilia Street, Suider Paarl, 7646

3. Purpose of the PAIA Manual

3.1. The purpose of PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within WINETECH by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.

3.2. To promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

3.3. Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

3.3.1. Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;

3.3.2. Commercial confidentiality; and

3.3.3. Effective, efficient, and good governance; and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

3.4. This PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of guide mentioned in section 10 of the Act and recognises that in terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, that the Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its regulations by private and public bodies.

5. The Information Officer [Section 51(1)(b)]

5.1. The Act prescribes the appointment of an Information Officer for public bodies where such Information Officer is responsible to, inter alia, assess request for access to information. The head of a private body fulfils such a function in terms of section 51.

5.2. The Information Officer appointed in terms of the Act also refers to the Information Officer as referred to in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. The Information Officer oversees the functions and responsibilities as required for in terms of both this Act as well as the duties and responsibilities in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 after registering with the Information Regulator.

5.3. The Information Officer may appoint, where it is deemed necessary, Deputy Information Officers, as allowed in terms of section 17 of the Act as well as section 56 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. This is in order to render WINETECH as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records and to ensure fulfilment of its obligations and responsibilities as prescribed in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. All request for information in terms of this Act must be addressed to the Information Officer.

9. Records that may be requested

9.1. Records that may be requested

   The information is classified and grouped according to records relating to the following subjects and categories:

   9.1.1. Personnel Records
   a. Personal records provided by personnel;
   b. Records provided by a third party relating to personnel;
   c. Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contractual and quasi-legal records;
   d. Internal evaluation records and other internal records;
   e. Correspondence relating to personnel;
   f. Training schedules and material.

   “Personnel” refers to any person who works for, or provides services to or on behalf of WINETECH, and receives or is entitled to receive remuneration and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of WINETECH. This includes, without limitation, directors (executive and non-executive, all permanent, temporary and part-time staff, as well as contract workers).

   9.1.2. Customer Related Records
   a. Records provided by a customer to a third party acting for or on behalf of WINETECH;
   b. Records provided by a third party;
   c. Records generated by or within WINETECH in the wine industry relating to its customers, including transactional records.

   A “customer” refers to any natural or juristic entity that receives services from WINETECH.
9.1.3. Private Body Records
   a. Records held by officials of WINETECH. These records include, but are not limited to, the records which pertain to WINETECH’s own affairs.

9.1.4. Other Party Records
   a. Personnel, customer or private body records which are held by another party, as opposed to the records held by WINETECH itself.
   b. Records held by WINETECH pertaining to other parties, including without limitation, financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party, and records third parties have provided about the contractors/suppliers.
   c. WINETECH may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation contractors, suppliers, subsidiary/holding/sister companies, joint venture companies, and service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to WINETECH.

10. Records Available without a Request to Access in terms of the Act
   10.1. Records of a public nature, typically those disclosed on the WINETECH website and in its various annual reports, may be accessed without the need to submit a formal application.

   10.2. Other non-confidential records, such as statutory records maintained at CIPC, may also be accessed without the need to submit a formal application, however, please note that an appointment to view such records will still have to be made with the Information Officer.
11. Prescribed Fees (Section 51 (1) (f))

11.1. Fees Provided by the Act

The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

1. A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
2. An access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

11.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).

11.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

11.4. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.

11.5. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and.
prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

11.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

12. Grounds to Refuse Access

A private body such as WINETECH is entitled to refuse a request for information.

12.1. Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;

12.2. mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;

12.3. Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64) if the record contains:

12.3.1. trade secrets of the third party;

12.3.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;

12.3.3. mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;

12.3.4. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to WINETECH, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

12.3.5. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66);

12.3.6. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67).
